Class History

One morning in September of 1950, 42 very green freshmen wandered into the halls of E.C.H.S. The class officers were chosen at our first class meeting. They were: Bill Dikeman, President; Kenneth McAlister, Vice-President; and Beverly Dembinski, Secretary-Treasurer. Our two parties for the year were a hayrack ride and wiener roast and a skating party with the sophomores.

In September of '51 we elected the following officers: Jim Nixon, President; Dorothy Ann Dunn, Vice-President; and Virginia Hill, Secretary-Treasurer. Our parties for the year were a dance and a skating party both with the sophomores.

In August of '52 we were back again, this time as juniors and past the half-way mark of our high school life. We chose as officers: Dale McBeth, President; Marcia Norris, Vice-President; and Bonnie Rice, Secretary-Treasurer. We presented our class play, "Seventeenth Summer," in November. March was our big month. Our class rings arrived; we sponsored a bake sale; and started making plans for the prom to be held on April 10. The theme was "Starlight Gardens." Gene Daley and Eleanor Nickeson were crowned king and queen. As this year came to a close, we were looking forward to next year when we would be seniors.

August of 1953 found us in the new high school. Our officers for the year were: Dorothy Ann Dunn, President; Jim Nixon, Vice-President; Bill Dikeman, Secretary-Treasurer; and Linda Kratzer, Reporter. We found another busy year before us. Our first party was the traditional steak fry. It was held at Bradley Park. At the end of the football season we sponsored a homecoming dance after the Princeville game. A pep rally was held the night before the game highlighted by the burning of the Princeville Princes in the huge bonfire and a snake dance through town. March 25, we presented our class play, "My Little Margie." April 17, we were guests of the Alumni at the Alumni Banquet, and April 30, we were guests of the juniors at the Junior Senior Reception.

As the graduating class, we now number 38. We are proud to be the first class to graduate from our new high school and are ready to go forth and make use of the knowledge we have gained in E.C.H.S. during the past four years.

Class Prophecy

ELMWOOD GAZETTE

May 25, 1964

Class of '54 Reunion held May 21.

May 21 at Elmwood High was the scene of the '54 class reunion. The former president of the class, Dorothy Dunn, brought the meeting to order. Dorothy is now a Farmington resident and married to a farmer. The vice-president, Jim Nixon, gave a short speech on past school days. He is now one of the top insurance agents in the state. The secretary, Bill Dikeman, gave the minutes of the last meeting. Bill has quite a large Duroc hog farm out east of town.

Next on the program was the principal of E.C.H.S., Mr. James Flynn. He had received several letters from members of the class who could not attend the reunion. The first letter was from Phyllis Abrams, who is private secretary to an executive in New York. It was also announced that she will be giving up her position as secretary, and be getting married before too long. The next letter was from the tall red head of the class, James Geber. He is now stationed overseas in the navy. The third letter was from Mrs. Marilou Howard Wilson, who is living in Texas with her husband. The last letter was from Mrs. Linda Kratzer Simmons, who was unable to attend because she could not find a baby sitter. A phone call was received from Shirley Clemonds, who is a Wac. She said that she was to be discharged in a few days, and would be getting married to a Peorian.

The table in the corner was completely filled with teachers. All during the meal they were seen discussing their many school problems. Among these were, Kathryn Gibbs, who is teaching at E.C.H.S., Judy Haines, who is superintendent at the grade school, Virginia Hill, who is professor of English at the U. of I., and Jeannette Moravek, of the grade school.

At another table sat the former basketball stars discussing old times. Larry Johnson, basketball coach at Bradley, is still the same, finger-chewing fanatic. Across from him is the balding John Bridson. He now owns several of the Mobilgas service stations, and there is a rumor that he is planning to purchase more out of state. The old faithful forward, Bill Howard, was also there. He has a welding shop in the south-east part of Elmwood. Dale McBeth, who now sits in top engineering position in Chicago, discusses some of the old basketball games with Dr. David Wilson. Dr. Wilson erected an animal hospital in Peoria not too long ago.

Across the room sat the former Ag students. At the end of the table was Charles Garrett. Charles was the first member of the class who married and is still the same happy Chucky. Next to him sat Mickey Crouch and Bill Schoenbein who talked about the new types of farm machinery. Buddy Silzer flew in from California and remarked that he has one of the largest Corriedale farms in the West. Ronald Goetze, another farmer, was also included in the group. Raymond Kolowski, who is farming south of town, is waiting for Lieutenant Mary Lou Weber. They plan to be married in June.

At another table sat Bonnie Rice, who is Superintendent of Nurses at the Methodist Hospital. She, Fannie Moore and Peggy Miles, also nurses of the surrounding area, were discussing new drugs with Medical Technologist, Dian Winn. Also at the table with the nurses was Billie Book, who is now married and living in a twenty room mansion in Oak Hill. Mrs. Marcia Norris Neal, who was attired in her usual black, was talking to Jean De Ford, secretary and receptionist of a Peoria firm.

At the last table Gladys Wilson, now owner of Wilson's Pool Hall, sat with Mrs. Rose Dunham Johnson, and Mrs. Beverly Dembinski Craig. Ruth O'Hearn, who is married and living in a log cabin in the woods, was also among the group.

Joe McCoy, pitcher for the Cubs, gave a short talk on National League Baseball. He talked as the guests ate dessert, cake which was provided by Richard Harkness, who owns a large interest in the Betty Anne Bakery.

The class plans to have another meeting May 21, 1974.

On August 21, 1951, 41 freshmen started the first of four years in Elmwood High School. Our first class meeting was held and the following officers were elected: Gene Endres, President; Deanne Patterson, Vice-President; and Janice Rodgers, Secretary-Treasurer. Our parties for the year were a dance and a skating party both with the sophomores.

In the fall of '52, we were back as sophomores. The officers for this year were: Gene Endres, President; Larry Doubet, Vice-President; Florence Wolschlag, Secretary-Treasurer.

As we entered our junior year we also entered our new high school building. Our class now totals 35 members. Class officers elected were: Nancy Hahn, President; Bill Colgan, Vice-President; Larry Doubet, Secretary-Treasurer; Dick Neal, Reporter. This year we sold magazines, had a bake sale, and sponsored a movie. A new project of the junior class was the organization of a school paper, "The Elmwood Echo," which we published once every six weeks. Our junior class play, "The Ruggles," which was held November 20th was a big success. In December our class rings arrived. During March we started making plans for our junior-senior prom, which was April 30. We chose as our theme, "Hawaiian Paradise." We are looking forward to next year when we will be seniors.

This year a new club was started at Elmwood High School. The officers for the year were:

President - - - - - - - - - Deanne Patterson
Vice-President - - - - - - Sharon Hoffmann
Secretary-Treasurer - - - - - - Nancy Hahn
Reporter- - - - - - - - - - - - - Sandra Clark

The object of this club is to promote good sportsmanship and to have a good cheering section.

Our first project was to purchase megaphones for the football cheerleaders. During the football season a bus was taken to Toulon, and bleachers were roped off for Pep Club members at home games.

During basketball season the meetings were held in the study hall every Monday evening. We took a bus to the Canton Regionals and purchased a plaque for the school. Individual trophies were given to the boys winning the Good Sportsmanship Award. John Bridson won both the awards, one for football and one for basketball. His name will be engraved on the plaque.

This year the club was made up of only girls, but we hope that next year there will be a large number of boys to cheer the Trojans to victory.

Bill Dikeman - - - - - - - - - - Band News
Mrs. Morse - - - - - - - - - - - - - - Advisor

The first big question was to find a name for the paper. All the students who had any ideas turned them in to the editors, and it was voted on by the entire school. "Elmwood Echo" was the name chosen for the paper.

The paper has proved to be a big success, and will probably be a project of the junior classes in the following years.

Their advisor, Mrs. Morse, helped them a great deal when it was started, and has been a great deal of help to them all year.

Prom

On the evening of April 30, 1954, the junior class invited the senior class and faculty to take a trip to "Hawaiian Paradise."

Beginning at 6:30, a banquet was served by the junior mothers. The meal consisted of fruit cocktail, swiss steak, mashed potatoes and gravy, peas, bing salad, pineapple upside-down cake, and coffee. Through the dinner hour, the soft strains of Hawaiian music could be heard.

Following the dinner was a short program consisting of the welcome by Nancy Hahn, junior class president; the response by Dorothy Ann Dunn, senior class president; Hawaiian music by Larry Coon on his electric guitar; a declamation by Sandra Coon, "Now That April's Here;" a speech on modern education by Mr. Cady; a piano solo, "Tarantelle," by Mary Stambaugh; and as a complete surprise to everyone, "The Cunningham's" from Galesburg danced the Hawaiian War Chant.

Following the program, everyone enjoyed dancing to the music of Kenny Landin and his Orchestra from Peoria.

The highlight of the evening was at 11:00 when the King and Queen of "Hawaiian Paradise" were crowned in an impressive ceremony. Proceding up a crepe paper isle were Nancy Hahn and Bill Colgan; Mary Ann Vance and Tom Kilpatrick, the punch boy and girl with the crowns; junior attendants, Deanne Patterson, Gene Endres, Margaret White, Jack Ledger; and senior attendants, Kathryn Gibbs and Ronald Goetze. Then came the King and Queen, David Wilson and Dorothy Ann Dunn. The reigning couple were presented the gold crowns and beautiful Hawaiian leas of white, pink, and red carnations. Then the royal group led the next dance.

At 12:00 the doors of the "Misty Isles" swung closed, and "Hawaiian Paradise" was a thing of the past.

This year the band has had a successful time. We were under the leadership of Mr. Paul Vegna from Peoria. We number nineteen in our membership which is mostly made up of grade school members.

The band played at most of the home football and basketball games. Nine members of the band attended the festival which was held at Macomb. We also attended the Blackhawk festival on March 16, for a whole day of music.

This year the band commission is going to give two trophies to two members in the band. They will be given on the merits of best conduct and ability to play. The winners are Peggy Miles for ability to play, and Judy Keyser for best conduct.

This year was the first time that we had a band commission. The commission consists of the members' parents. They have been a big factor in our success and we hope that they continue to do so.
